

TAKE FIVE TO MEET CHAMBER MEMBER

Salina Comic Con

Salina Comic Con has been a member of the Chamber since 2018 and is hosting their third Comic Con in Salina this May. This is a fun and family-friendly event that attracts lots of visitors and locals to this two day event!

Salina Comic Con 'Strikes Back!' will be held at the Tony's Pizza Events Center on May 4 and 5. At the event there will be vendors on hand for attendees who want to buy, sell, and trade comic books, toys and pop culture memorabilia.

May 4 at Salina Comic Con will be a big day as it is Free Comic Book Day and Star Wars Day: May the 4th Be With You! Salina Comic Con has teamed up with Diamond Publishing who is sending an assortment of comics to giveaway at the event since it is Free Comic Book Day! They have also teamed up with Salina Liberty to recognize the annual Star Wars Day at the con and at Salina Liberty's game that evening. Be sure to attend the game at 6:30pm to continue the fun and support your local arena football team!

Love to dress up? The popular costume contest, known as 'cosplay', will be back again this year!! This is a really fun part of the event seeing everyone dressed up as their favorite characters! Are you in need of ideas with getting your costume together? The Salina Public Library is a great resource!

For more event information follow Salina Comic Con's Facebook page and event page as they will be announcing celebrity guests and more details as they unfold about the event.

Mark your calendars to join us in a galaxy far, far away where comics, cosplay, art, and toys can all be found in one place as Salina Comic Con: Episode III returns to the Tony's Pizza Events Center on May 4 and 5.

Show Hours -- May 4: 10am-6pm; May 5: 10am-4pm
Tickets -- Saturday: $10; Sunday: $8
(ticket prices increase $2 day of the show)
Kids 8 and under are free with a paid ticket

Visit www.tonypizzaeventscenter.com or stop by the TPEC

