Prairieland Market

Did you know you can get farm fresh foods from Kansas growers right here in downtown Salina? Prairieland Market offers so many yummy fresh fruits, vegetables, meats and lots more!

Prairieland Market has local foods from growers all across Kansas. Shop their wide variety of products from vendors who offer fruits & vegetables, local meats, breads & baked goods, farm fresh eggs, local cheeses, spices, pantry items, bulk good, snacks and beverages. To learn more about each vendor be sure to check out Prairieland Market's new website.

A unique feature about Prairieland Market is their CSA Program which stands for Community Supported Agriculture. This program is great for many reasons: your dollars spent stay in the community, you support local farmers, makes for easy meal planning and keeps you eating healthier year around! There are a few different options to pick from for households big or small, they have a share for you.

Looking for a quick, easy, and healthy meal to take home? Prairieland Market offers prepared foods available each week. Some of their favorites are vegetarian and classic lasagna, soups and stews, pot pies, and burritos. Stop in to try delicious meals made just for you! You will also find Kansas made gifts and goodies. They carry products such as: handmade soaps, locally distilled essential oils, finely crafted wood crafts and other great gifts.

Whether you are looking for fresh produce & meats, an easy & healthy meal for dinner or wanting to support local farmers, Prairieland Market is a great resource for the community!
